Mindful Eating 5s

Information resource by Freed

Susan Albers, PsyD, a clinical psychologist, suggests five principles for mindful eating, known as the "5 S's."

SIT DOWN.

Have a seat! Avoid nibbling in front of the refrigerator or snacking in your car. Put food on a plate. You will enjoy food more and eat less when you give eating your full attention. "Only eat off your feet."

SLOWLY CHEW

Eat with your non-dominant hand (if you are right handed eat with your left). Research indicates that eating with your opposite hand can reduce how much you eat by 30%. Intentionally chew slower than the person you are eating with. "Pace, don't race."

SAVOR

Take a mindful bite. Smell. Taste. Notice and look at each spoonful. Turn off the TV and other distractions. "When you eat, just eat."

SIMPLIFY

Put healthy foods in a convenient place like on the counter. Place treats out of view. Research indicates that people tend to eat what is in their immediately reach. "In sight, in mind, out of sight, out of mind."

SMILE

Smiling can create a brief pause between your current bite and the next one. During that gap, ask yourself if you are just satisfied, not full. "Take a breath, to manage stress
